CLIFF FLETCHER

GENERAL MANAGER

Cliff Fletcher, who was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in the Builder category in 2004, brings more than 50 years of experience in his return to the Maple Leafs. As one of the most respected gentlemen in the game of hockey, Fletcher has over 25 years of experience as an NHL general manager. He rejoined the Maple Leafs January 22, 2008 and the team fashioned a record of 17 wins, 13 losses and three overtime/shootout losses after his arrival.

Fletcher took over an underachieving Maple Leafs franchise on July 1, 1991 as chief operating officer, president and general manager and presided over a turnaround that saw the team advance to the conference finals (1993 and 1994) for the first time since 1978. The team had three consecutive seasons of better than .500% hockey for the first time since the 1976-79 time period. The Maple Leafs played in 52 postseason games as the hockey club reached the playoffs in four of his six seasons with him at the helm. He was chosen "Man of the Year" and "Executive of the Year" in 1993 by The Hockey News. Under his direction, the Maple Leafs posted a record of 202 wins, 200 losses, and 58 ties for a .502 winning percentage from 1991 to 1997. Fletcher and the team parted ways May 24, 1997.

A native of Montreal, Quebec, Fletcher was a scout with the Montreal Canadiens for 10 years beginning in 1956 under legendary Sam Pollock. He later became the general manager of the Verdun Blues junior hockey team. Fletcher served as a scout and assistant general manager with the St. Louis Blues from 1966-72 before being named general manager of the expansion Atlanta Flames in 1972.

Fletcher was the Flames' general manager in the team's first 19 years of existence. He oversaw the beginning of the Atlanta Flames franchise in 1972, and in 1980, he organized the transfer of the franchise to Calgary. In 11 seasons with Calgary, the team won two President's Trophies, two Campbell Conference crowns and two Smythe Division titles. In 1989, the Flames defeated the Canadiens to capture the Stanley Cup on Montreal Forum ice.

Fletcher was the first general manager to sign and bring a player from the Soviet Union to play in the NHL with official consent when Sergei Priakin joined the Flames in 1988. He compiled a .581 winning percentage with the Flames franchise and he also served as general manager of Team Canada in the 1981 Canada Cup. In 1999 Fletcher served as senior advisor to the general manager of the Tampa Bay Lightning for two seasons. He joined the Phoenix Coyotes in February 2001 as general manager and executive vice president, moving up to senior executive vice president of hockey operations the following year. He and the club's general manager were relieved of their duties in Phoenix in April 2007.

Fletcher's stature in hockey led to his place on the Hockey Hall of Fame's Selection Committee. He served seven seasons as one of the 18 members on the committee before stepping down in 2002-03.

PAUL MAURICE

HEAD COACH

Paul Maurice completed his eleventh NHL season as head coach in 2007-08 and his second as bench boss of the Toronto Maple Leafs. In his two seasons at the helm of the Maple Leafs, he has compiled a record of 76 wins, 66 losses and 22 overtime/shootout losses.

Maurice was named the 26th head coach in franchise history on May 12, 2006, and most recently, reached the milestone of 800 NHL games coached at Los Angeles on January 10, 2008. He originally joined the Leafs organization June 24, 2005 as head coach of their American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate the Toronto Marlies, compiling a record of 41-29-4-6 and advancing to the playoffs in their inaugural season.

Maurice spent more than eight seasons behind the bench with the Hartford Whalers/Carolina Hurricanes organization. He ranks first in Carolina franchise history in regular season wins (268), games coached (674), playoff wins (17) and playoff games coached (35). Prior to the 2003-04 season, Maurice was the longest-tenured head coach in the NHL after having been promoted from a Whalers assistant coach's position on November 6, 1995. At only 28 years old, he became the league's youngest head coach and maintained that designation until the Boston Bruins hired Mike Sullivan on June 23, 2003.

Under the guidance of Maurice, the Hurricanes achieved four consecutive winning seasons from 1998-2002. They captured Southeast Division titles in 1999 and 2002 and appeared in the Stanley Cup Final for the first time following a six-game series defeat of the Maple Leafs to win the Eastern Conference title in 2002.

Prior to joining the Whalers as an assistant during the summer of 1995, Maurice spent two seasons as head coach of the Ontario Hockey League's Detroit Jr. Red Wings. While in Detroit, he compiled a regular season record of 86-38-8 and led the team to the 1995 OHL Championship and an appearance in the Memorial Cup in Kamloops, British Columbia. That season, he finished second in voting to Guelph's Craig Hartsburg for the Matt Leyden Trophy which is annually awarded to the OHL's Coach of the Year.

Maurice, 41, became the Leafs' youngest head coach since Dan Maloney led the team during the 1984-85 season at the age of 33.

A native of Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, Maurice played his junior hockey with the OHL's Windsor Spitfires (1984-1988). He had his career cut short due to an eye injury and began coaching as an assistant with the Jr. Red Wings shortly thereafter. He was Philadelphia's 12th choice, 252nd overall, in the 1985 NHL Entry Draft.

Maurice and his wife Michelle are the parents of children Sydney, Jake and Luke.

2007-08 NOMINATIONS/AWARDS

MAPLE LEAFS 2008 BILL MASTERTON TROPHY NOMINEE:

Jason Blake – The Toronto chapter of the Professional Hockey Writers Association has chosen left winger Jason Blake as its nominee for the 2008 Bill Masterton Trophy, awarded for 'perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey'.

Blake's teammates and family were shocked after just a few weeks with his new team when he was diagnosed with chronic myelogenous leukemia (CML), a rare, but treatable form of cancer. But the Hibbing, Minnesota native was good on his word not to let the serious ailment take him out of the lineup. Blake was one of only three Toronto players not to have missed a game in 2007-08. Already one of the smaller players in the NHL, the 5-foot-10, 180-pound Blake has not altered his style against bigger men, while maintaining last season's ice time of almost 18 minutes a game. He had 52 points in 82 games and ranked fifth in NHL shots on goal.

Blake, who takes a daily pill called Gleevec for his condition, also hosted a leukemia awareness night at Air Canada Centre in January and donated $1,000 a goal and $500 an assist through January to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society of Canada.

Each NHL city's PWHA chapter nominates a Masterton candidate and the winner is chosen from a vote of the entire PHWA at the end of the season. The Masterton is part of the league's televised awards ceremony in June.

LIGHTNING WIN DRAFT DRAWING, RETAIN FIRST PICK FOR 2008 ENTRY DRAFT

NEW YORK (April 7, 2007) -- The Tampa Bay Lightning won the National Hockey League Draft Drawing today and retained the first overall drafting position for the 2008 NHL Entry Draft, June 20 and 21 at Scotiabank Place in Ottawa, Ontario.

The Lightning had the greatest percentage likelihood, 25%, that one of the numbered sequences assigned to them would be the winning combination. Under the lottery system, only the five teams with the fewest points had the chance to win the first overall selection; no team could move up more than four spots and no team could move backward more than one.

The Los Angeles Kings, Atlanta Thrashers, St. Louis Blues and New York Islanders own the second, third, fourth and fifth drafting positions in the first round.

The Lightning have selected first overall twice before in franchise history. With those picks, the team selected Roman Hamrlik (1992) and Vincent Lecavalier (1998).

The order of selection for the first 14 drafting positions in the first round, only, of the 2008 Entry Draft is as follows:

1. Tampa Bay Lightning
2. Los Angeles Kings
3. Atlanta Thrashers
4. St. Louis Blues
5. New York Islanders
6. Columbus Blue Jackets
7. Toronto Maple Leafs
8. Phoenix Coyotes
9. Nashville Predators (from Florida)
10. Vancouver Canucks
11. Chicago Blackhawks
12. Anaheim Ducks (from Edmonton)
13. Buffalo Sabres
14. Carolina Hurricanes

The remaining drafting positions will be determined at the conclusion of the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

The Drawing was conducted at the NHL's New York office and, for only the second time ever, the results were televised live on TSN and NHL Network in Canada and VERSUS and NHL Network in the U.S. The results also were streamed live on NHL.com and TSN.ca and broadcast live on XM Satellite Radio.

Fourteen balls, numbered 1 to 14, were placed in a lottery machine. The machine expelled four balls, forming a series of numbers. The four-digit series resulting from the expulsion of the balls was matched against a probability chart that divided the possible combinations among the 14 participating clubs. The chart showed that the Lightning had been assigned the numbers (2-5-6-7) that were expelled.

The Draft Drawing is a weighted system to give the teams that finished with the fewest points during the regular season the greatest chance of having their combination selected. The Lightning and Kings both finished the regular season with the fewest points in the League (71). As a result of winning fewer games (31), Tampa Bay was assigned the greatest number of combinations, representing a 25% likelihood that their combination would emerge. The Kings (32 wins) were assigned 18.8% of the combinations, followed by the Thrashers (14.2%), the Blues (10.7%) and the Islanders (8.1%). The remaining teams had the following chances: 6.2%, 4.7%, 3.6%, 2.7%, 2.1%, 1.5%, 1.1%, 0.8% and 0.5%.

The 2008 NHL Entry Draft will take place at Scotiabank Place in Ottawa, Ontario. The first round will take place on Friday, June 20 the subsequent rounds will take place on Saturday, June 21.
